

2021 Annual Lavender Law Conference and Career Fair

Panel: Pandemic Nation: Understanding Its Impact on Lawyers From Underrepresented Communities

Description:

By any measure, the pandemic brought by COVID-19 has had a devastating impact on working professionals from marginalized communities. You are invited to join the ACC Foundation in partnership with the Association for Law Firm Diversity Professionals (ALFDP) and the Thomson Reuters Institute to gain insights from our recent research analyzing the impact of the pandemic and other seismic events, including racial injustice, on the careers of lawyers identifying as LGBTQ, attorneys of color and women lawyers in the US and UK.

Panelists:

Brenda Carr (Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer)
Jennifer Chen (ACC Foundation)
Monica A. Johnson (Darigold)
Tracey West (WilmerHale)

Panel Focus:

This panel focus on the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on attorneys who are LGBTQ+, women, and people of color.

CLE Materials:

The CLE materials for this session provide an in-depth review of the effect the pandemic had on employment on a variety of underrepresented groups in the legal profession. The data reviews the effects of the pandemic through a variety of different metrics including years of experience, race, gender, and geographic location.
