

You have the right to use the restroom that is consistent with your gender identity or gender expression.

You do not have to show identification, medical documentation, or any other proof of gender.

Any person who assaults, harasses, intimidates, or otherwise interferes with you for exercising your right to do so may be subject to the legal penalties provided for in New York's Gender Expression Non-Discrimination Act.