Dear Ms. Kemnitz,

I am a first-year student at Georgetown University Law Center, and I am seeking a summer legal internship through the National LGBT Bar Association 1L—Prudential 2012 1L Summer Program. I went to undergraduate school for opera performance, but I decided to change course and pursue a career in law because of a series of setbacks for the LGBT community. I believe that we are better when people of different race, culture, gender, sexuality, political ideology and educational background learn and work together. As a gay, Japanese-American man, I would contribute to the diversity of Prudential Financial, Inc. I want to promote a legal and business culture that not only accepts but also recognizes the value in peoples' differences.

I have hands on legal research and writing experience that I gained working for civil rights attorney Thomas Shanahan as a paid legal intern. We worked on cases involving family law, housing, and employment discrimination. I have continued to develop my skills in the intensive Legal Research & Writing class at Georgetown (see reference Professor Lisa Avalos). I want to work hard, and my strong experience in legal research, together with my dedication to equality and inclusiveness, would make me a valuable addition as a summer legal intern at Prudential Financial, Inc.

I have attached a résumé, an unofficial law school transcript, and a list of references for your review. I would be more than happy to forward any additional documents at your request. I can be reached by email at dhwoofter@gmail.com, by phone at (510) 407-1699 or at the address above. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Daniel Hirotsu Woofter
