SUMMER 2011 LEGAL/LEGISLATIVE INTERNSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

New York Civil Liberties Union Legal Department Law Intern - unpaid

The New York Civil Liberties Union, the New York state affiliate of the American Civil Liberties Union, seeks current law students for summer 2011 legal/legislative internships (unpaid).

The New York Civil Liberties Union (NYCLU) is one of the nation's foremost defenders of civil liberties and civil rights. Founded in 1951 as the New York affiliate of the American Civil Liberties Union, the NYCLU is a not-for-profit, nonpartisan organization with six chapters and approximately 50,000 members statewide. The NYCLU defends the rights and freedoms embodied in the state and federal constitutions. We focus on freedom of speech, freedom of religion, the right to privacy, reproductive rights, youth and student rights, lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender rights, voting rights, and the protections afforded those who come into contact with the criminal justice system. The NYCLU engages in various forms of advocacy, including litigation, legislative and policy initiatives and public education. For more information about the NYCLU, please visit www.nyclu.org.

Applicants should have a commitment to public interest law and to civil liberties. Please send a resume, cover letter, two references, and a writing sample by February 28, 2011 to:

*Summer Legal/Legislative Internship
