

WHITE HOUSE LGBT CONFERENCE ON HOUSING & HOMELESSNESS

Hosted by the White House and the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development in partnership with the Ruth Ellis Center

Friday, March 9, 2012
8:30 AM – 5:30 PM

Wayne State University
Detroit, MI

FEATURING

Secretary Shaun Donovan

U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development

John Trasviña, Assistant Secretary for Fair Housing & Equal Opportunity

U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development

Raphael Bostic, Assistant Secretary for Policy Development & Research

U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development

Mercedes Marquez, Assistant Secretary for Community Planning & Development

U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development

Bryan Samuels, Commissioner of the Administration on Children, Youth, & Families

U.S. Department of Health & Human Services

The White House LGBT Conference on Housing & Homelessness, co-sponsored by the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development in partnership with the Ruth Ellis Center, will provide advocates, community leaders, and members of the public an opportunity to engage with the Obama Administration on housing and homelessness issues that impact lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) Americans. Participants will receive updates from Obama Administration officials, connect with Federal government resources and opportunities through workshop sessions, and provide valuable feedback through the “Open Space” process.

PARKING DIRECTIONS: Pay parking is available at Structure 1 at 450 West Palmer, opposite the Law School and two blocks north of the Community Arts Center and McGregor Center.

ALL OTHER INQUIRIES, QUESTIONS, & CONCERNS: Please contact LGBT@who.eop.gov.

Space is limited and registration is required.

Registration will be open until Friday, March 2, 2012, or until we reach capacity.

REGISTER ONLINE (REQUIRED): <http://go.usa.gov/QVd>