

I Want To Donate

Did you know that the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) prohibits anyone who's had sex with a man who has sex with men (MSM) in the last 12 months from donating blood? This ban perpetuates harmful stereotypes not based in science.

The National LGBT Bar Association is calling for a policy change. Let us adopt a risk-based analysis, rather than a rule that largely targets individuals based solely on sexual orientation.

Learn more about this work at lgbtbar.org.

