UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI SCHOOL of LAW

Professor Marc Fajer joined the University of Miami School of Law in 1988 after receiving his A.B. '82 and JD '85 from Stanford University. Following his graduation from law school, he served as a law clerk to Judge Betty B. Fletcher of the United States Court of Appeals. In addition to his teaching and research in the fields of Antitrust Law, Legal History, and Property, Professor Fajer served as the faculty advisor to moot court and the Gay People's Alliance, the predecessor to the current OUTLaw student association.

In recognition of his extraordinary service to the law school and his students, alumni, colleagues and friends are establishing a scholarship in his name at the School of Law. The scholarship will support meritorious law students involved with LGBTQ advocacy. We invite you to join us in recognizing in Professor Fajer by making a contribution to this fund.
